LOUISVILLE MAN SENTENCED FOR SEXUAL CONTACT WITHOUT CONSENT

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, announced today that FREDERICK E. MAJOR, age 39, of 3314 Linwood Avenue, Louisville, Kentucky, in Jefferson County, was sentenced in United States District Court, Louisville, Kentucky, for engaging in sexual contact with another person without that person's permission.

Judge Thomas B. Russell, United States District Court, sentenced Major to 222 days confinement.

Major had previously pled guilty to having sexual contact with another person without that person's consent and admitted that he engaged in sexual contact with the victim without the victim's permission on August 5, 2004 on Fort Knox Military Reservation. At the time of the crime, Major was a civilian contract worker in a Fort Knox dining facility, but has since been barred from entering Fort Knox. Major committed the abusive sexual contact against the victim, another civilian dining facility worker, in a restroom in the Fort Knox dining facility in which they both worked.

The case was prosecuted by former Special Assistant United States Attorney Trent Sandifur and Special Assistant United States Attorney Dan Stigall and was investigated by the United States Army Criminal Investigation Division.
